

THE LEWOS TAVERN

ADVENTURER'S GUIDE
BEFORE YOU ENTER THE TAVERN

Your place at the table is waiting.

Before you make your way into the mountains of Astoria,
we've gathered everything you need to know in one place.

You don't need armour.

You don't need to memorise a rulebook.

And we're fairly certain you won't need a sword.

A GOOD PAIR OF SHOES IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

The Tavern is located in Fontecha, Parres, Asturias, tucked away in the mountains of Northern Spain.

Recommended airports:

- Asturias Airport (OVD)
- Santander Airport (SDR)
- Bilbao Airport (BIO)

Bilbao is further away, but may offer better international connections.

Getting here:

Flights, trains and long-distance travel are not included in your booking.

Transfers from Asturias Airport (OVD) or the train or bus station in Arriondas to the Tavern are included. Simply send us your arrival details and we'll arrange collection. Collection from elsewhere can be arranged at additional cost. You can also hire a car if you'd like the freedom to explore Asturias.

You don't need previous Dungeons & Dragons or tabletop roleplaying experience to join us.

We'll explain what you need to know.

You are not expected to memorise rules, understand every dice roll or know what every spell does before arriving.

Experienced players are equally welcome.

The important thing is that everyone comes ready to participate in the story and share the table.

Lewos Tavern isn't a city hotel.

You're staying deep in rural Asturias, surrounded by mountains, forests and small villages.

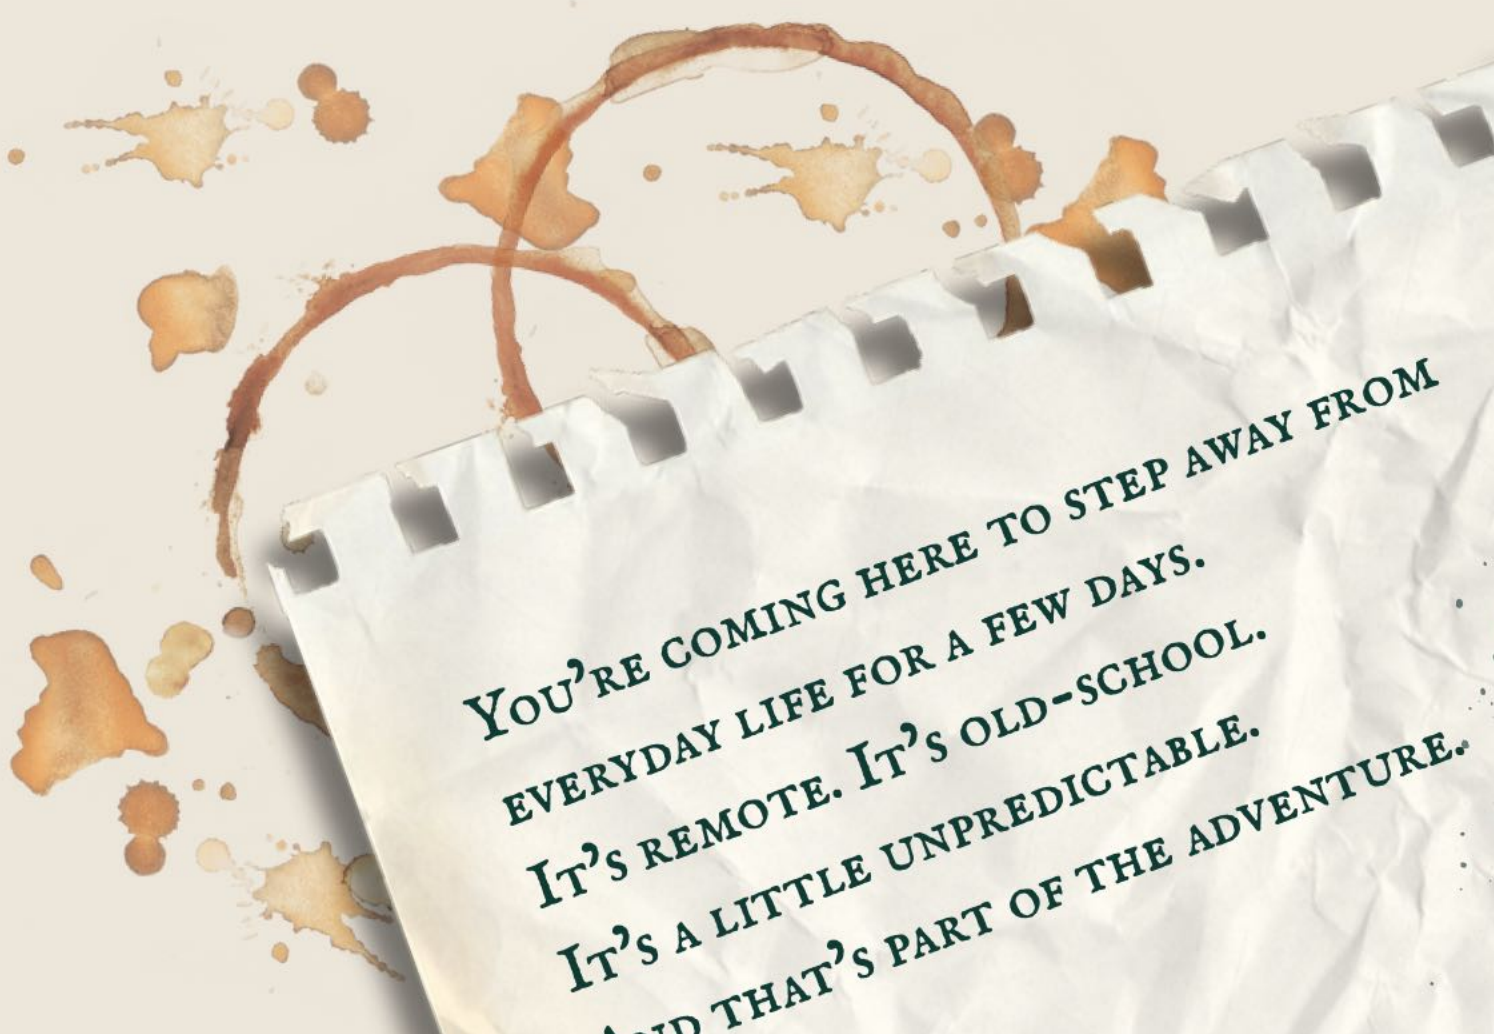

Out here, things work a little differently and that's exactly why we're here.

Sometimes, the mountains have their own plans....

The generator may decide it needs a moment. The internet might disappear into the woods. The weather can change before you've finished your coffee.

If something stops working, we'll do everything we can get it running again but out here, not everything happens at the push of a button.

Shops aren't just around the corner either, so bring anything personal you know you'll need during your stay.

YOU'RE COMING HERE TO STEP AWAY FROM EVERYDAY LIFE FOR A FEW DAYS.
IT'S REMOTE. IT'S OLD-SCHOOL.
IT'S A LITTLE UNPREDICTABLE.
AND THAT'S PART OF THE ADVENTURE.

The adventure is at the heart of the weekend, but you won't spend every waking minute rolling dice.

There'll also be time for:

- Shared meals
- Coffee & drinks around the table
- Breaks between sessions
- Conversations with your fellow adventurers
- Fresh mountain air
- Exploring the surroundings when time and weather allow
- And simply enjoying the Tavern

We deliberately keep the group small.

Lewos Tavern isn't designed to feel like an event with dozens of attendees.

For a few days, this is your Tavern.

edition. If your weekend is not one, none of it applies to you. This is not a videographer, and we will always ask first before taking any photograph you appear in.

Some adventures deserve to be captured. During selected Tavern weekends, we'll be documenting the experience, atmosphere and stories that unfold around the table.

Throughout the weekend, we'll be filming and taking photographs during gameplay, meals and moments around the Tavern. The footage may be used to share and promote The Lewos Tavern through our website, our social-media channels and other promotional material. Paid advertising is separate: that only happens with the specific permission you give in your Filming & Media Agreement, and never without it.

DON'T PLAY FOR THE CAMERA

We want to capture the weekend as it really happens. There's no need to pose or perform.

Play your character, follow the story and enjoy the adventure.

Every adult attending completes their own Filming & Media Agreement before the weekend. Nobody can do that for you, not even the person who booked. Once yours is completed, there is nothing else you need to do.

We'll always film respectfully and without getting in the way of your experience. If there's a particular moment when you'd rather not be filmed, just let us know.

FORGET ABOUT THE CAMERA.
THE ADVENTURE COMES FIRST.

Please make sure before travelling that:

- Your travel arrangements are confirmed
- You have saved the Tavern location
- We know about your dietary requirements
- You have attended the online introduction session
- You have appropriate clothing and footwear
- You have valid travel documents
- You have appropriate personal travel insurance
- You've contacted us if there's anything we should know

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS AT ANY POINT, CONTACT US.
WE WOULD MUCH RATHER
ANSWER ONE QUESTION TOO
MANY BEFORE YOUR JOURNEY THAN LEAVE YOU WONDERING.

That's it.

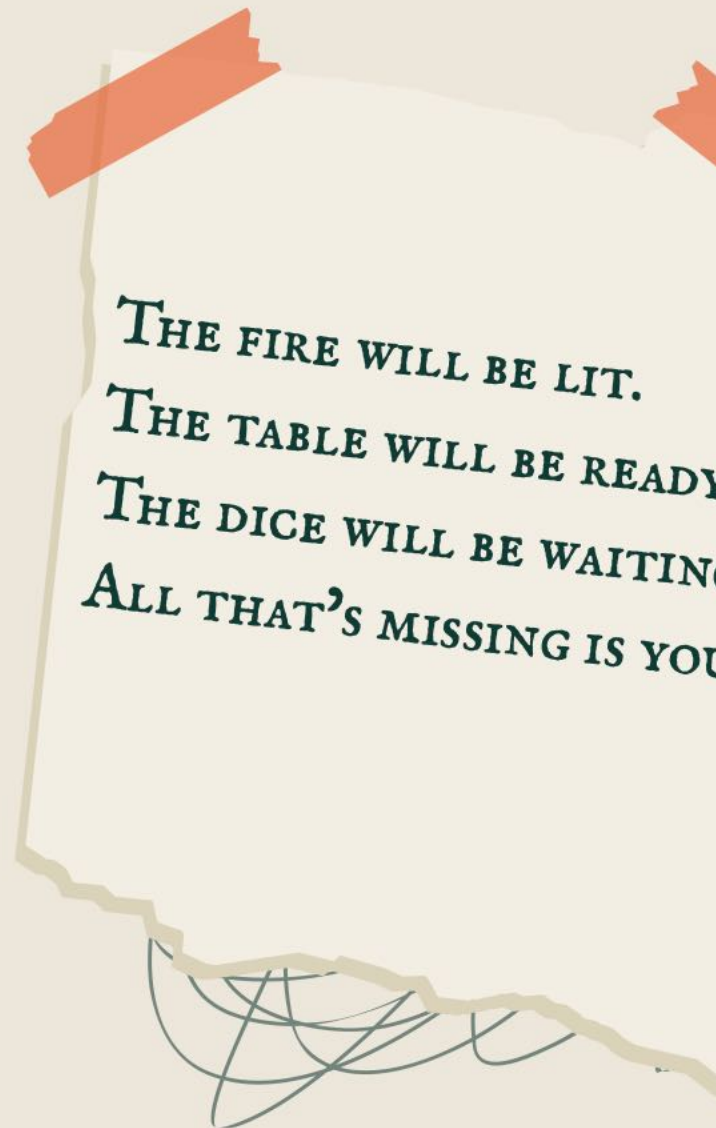

Pack your bag.

Leave the cities behind you.

Make your way toward the mountains.

We'll take care of what happens once you reach the mountains.
